

NOBLESVILLE PARKS & RECREATION STAFF

Nichole Haberlin is the Recreation Director for the Noblesville Parks and Recreation Department. She started in January 2015. Her main responsibilities will include operations and programming for the Recreation division.

Nichole graduated from Ball State University with a Bachelors in Exercise Science- Aquatics and a Masters in Sports Administration. She spent her first five years working as the Assistant Director of Aquatics at the University of Dayton. While in Ohio, Nichole also was an Adjunct Faculty member for Sinclair Community College and was a paid-on call Firefighter-EMT. After the University of Dayton, Nichole spent the last 2 ½ years working for Carmel Clay Parks and Recreation. For the first year of her time with Carmel she managed the waterpark. She managed the daily operations including memberships, rentals, and concessions for the last year and a half. In 2014, Nichole earned her Certified Parks and Recreation Professional (CPRP) certification. She has been an American Legion Auxiliary member for 29 years, a Girl Scout for life, and a member of National Intramural Recreation Sport Association (NIRSA) since 2004.

Nichole enjoys summer camps, board games, time with friends and spends her free summer weekends camping in Northwest Indiana with her family.
